There are so many motor vehicles owned or in use in Danielson this summer that the matter of parking the machines in the business section is one that is claiming the attention of many. The congestion is so serious, especially on Saturday nights, and usually on other nights of the week, as to bring the suggestion from some sources that parking should be prohibited through at least a part of the business section. This suggestion has been made in the interest of easier driving conditions and for the safety of the public.

Miss Lillian E. Bailey and Miss Annie J. Page, officers of the Danielson lodge, have drafted resolutions pertaining to the death of Miss Lillian E. Prentice, a member of the lodge.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Quinebaug company operating the big mills on the West Side, has been called for the coming month to see if the stockholders will vote to terminate the corporate existence of the Quinebaug company, in accordance with a vote taken at a meeting of the directors of the company held this month.

The notice to the stockholders sets forth as the reasons for terminating the corporate existence of the company, that the purpose is that the property business and affairs of the present company may be set over to a corporation of a who has completed his junior year at the Woodstock academy, is in Andover, Mass., today (Monday), taking his entrance examinations for Phillips academy, where he intends to prepare for college.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lapsley and Russell Perkins of Pomfret sailed on the Imperator from New York Thursday for Europe. The gentlemen were officers in the U. S. army in France and the party are planning to visit by automobile the battlefields and other interesting sections of France.

Dr. Marguerite J. Bullard and Mrs. S. B. Overlook are expected home from Europe early in July.

Charles Rita, who left Putnam to visit relatives in Italy, has returned to this city and is now the employer of Charles Bove as collier. Much has happened to Rita during his absence, for he has been away for a much longer time than he originally intended. Mr. Rita has lived in this country for seven years before he left for Italy, but had never been naturalized. Italy was aware of this fact, consequently when war was declared he was drafted into the Italian army. For four years he fought for his native land against the Austrian hordes. Much of this time was spent in the front line trenches, and much time was also spent in hospitals recovering from wounds. On the date of his first injury seven bullets penetrated his body. He also received two other wounds, though these were less serious. He still carries one bullet with him. While in Italy Mr. Rita married, and his wife and three children will soon join him in Putnam.

Saturday a number of boys canvassed the business section to sell tags to organize a drum corps. From the number of tags worn a good sum must have been realized.
